Please forward your interest to: accounts@astoundinginc.com
In the subject line, include: I have something for you!

We would love to know more about your skill/knowledge or even the silliest ideas you have to suggest, but don't know how to spread them around.

No matter how old you are, where you are, who you are... we are waiting for your email right at this present moment!

As you will notice, you will see several “Order Now” links in the sales letter. Your only concern is to replace the original link:

http://www.YOUR\_ORDER\_LINK.com

WITH

Your link that will take your visitors to your payment service, whether it be through PayPal, Clickbank, MyPaySystems, 2Checkout etc...

We strongly suggest that you keep your price near the original price we set, $27.

Remember, if something is too cheap... people immediately discard that product/service and instantly get an impression of junk/garbage/will never work type of mindset.

YOU WANT TO STAY AWAY FROM THIS.

Don't think that you will get all the sales by setting the price of I!IMG to $5-$10 and outsell your entire competition.

(We recommend that you consistently check-up on new version of I!IMG.
Update version instructions are provided inside the eBook.)

The only way you can outsell your competition, is either by improving the sales letter, or adding even better and more enticing bonus products.

Also make sure to direct all the picture links to your web server host. We recommend you use a WYSIWYG Webpage program like FrontPage Express or Dreamweaver, which will definitely simplify your task of redesigning or updating the original sales letter.

Remember, this eBook has just been released and you have an HUGE advantage of taking over your competition, but only if you act now!
