 indicates your product

YOUR TESTIMONIAL LINK indicates a world-wide-web address which has your testimonials on it, replace with a text hyperlink or an actual testimonial or two if you’d prefer.

YOUR TEL/SKYPE ID/MSN/YAHOO IM ID indicates where you can enter either your telephone number or email address. You could also put your MSN or SKYPE ID for free online calls. Depends on your preferred means of contact with your customer and how you pan on building your customer relations and service.

<firstname> indicates the first name of your prospect, lead or customer.

<yourname> is where you add your signature – that is to say your own name, email address, contact and website.

BENEFIT/FEATURE is where you add a particular benefit or feature of your product or service which suits the copy. Same goes for SOLUTION.

PROBLEM – what problem does your product solve for the customer?

Rome wasn't built in a day, and it all starts by taking the decision to get in touch.

"Here's where your site is different: support. I could not believe the amount of material information, directions, and most importantly, the human support that was available. YOU have been friendly and accessible, the general support team kind and prompt, and above all everyone has treated me respectfully and individually." - Janice Thow

"I've looked at several opportunities both online and offline and joined a few of them - but none have offered the level of support and encouragement, as well as the wealth of valuable, useful information which I've had from you in my first two weeks." - Bill

Why don't you email me back and I'll send you details of our special discount I created just for you. Or, if you have any other concerns, get in touch and I'll answer all your questions.
